

Easily Access More Than 600 Labs Through a Single Service

NextGen® Share Diagnostic Hub Service

Communicate with labs efficiently and cost-effectively

NextGen Share Diagnostic Hub Service provides NextGen® Enterprise clients with seamless access to more than 600 regional lab facilities through a single service built upon the NextGen Share platform. Electronic orders and results can be exchanged directly through the Orders Module in the NextGen Enterprise workflow.

A refreshing alternative to traditional point-to-point interface connections, NextGen Share Diagnostic Hub Service can be easily self-installed through the NextGen Share Portal website. You can avoid the need for a lengthy implementation and eliminate costs for exchanging electronic orders and results within NextGen Enterprise.

Eliminate interface costs

This service boosts efficiency for practices of all sizes that routinely communicate with laboratory facilities. Specialty practices that place orders and receive results less frequently can also find relief from the high cost of traditional interfaces.
