

NextGen™ UDS Management Services Package

Augmenting your team for Uniform Data System (UDS) readiness

Prepare your health center for UDS+ patient-level data reporting required in 2023

Your FQHC now has $60,000 to help you with UDS, thanks to HRSA! Deadline is May 23, 2022. See details here >

What you get

A dedicated UDS specialist who will work alongside your existing quality management and IT teams to help you with your new UDS reporting requirements. They will:

- Help you analyze and monitor your historic UDS results
- Improve compliance, and ensure proper documentation and workflow improvement
- Provide monitoring, education and clarify roles and responsibilities

All aimed to improve UDS outcomes while reducing clinician burden.

The UDS specialist will meet several times per month to ensure success. They will augment your NextGen training including code mapping, report filters, and test-patient management. The specialist will also review perceived data anomalies and resolve configuration settings, and other issues as needed.

NEXTGEN™ UDS MANAGEMENT SERVICES PACKAGE PRICING

Subscription at $59 per provider, per month for all clinical providers capped at $18,000 per year, initial 3-year term

What to know for 2022

NextGen Healthcare is committed to delivering an on-time UDS Utility for our FQHC clients. The UDS console for 2022 will be delivered in much the same way it's been delivered for years and will include NextGen elements of Table 9D.

New capability available now: UDS Trending—Monitor your UDS clinical measures throughout the year

Built within the HQM framework, UDS Trending monitors UDS table 6B and 7, clinical quality measures. This does not replace the UDS Console, it's an additional monitoring solution that compliments the UDS Console. It is included with HQM and available now to any FQHC using HQM. If you're not using HQM yet, this is the time to start!
