

A Cloud-Optimized, AI-Orchestrated Platform for Your Ophthalmology Practice

Simplify complex workflows with one intelligent platform

Ophthalmology practices need more than a generic EHR. They need a platform designed for specialty complexity, operational scale, and evolving patient expectations.

NextGen Healthcare delivers a fully integrated, AI-orchestrated platform that helps ophthalmology practices move beyond a system of record to a true system of context. Unifying intelligent EHR, practice management, revenue cycle, patient engagement, and analytics solutions, we help you simplify complex workflows, surface actionable insights, and drive better outcomes.

What this means for you: fewer workarounds, cleaner handoffs, and one source of truth across your practice.

Where ophthalmology care flows seamlessly

NextGen® Ophthalmic Suite delivers specialty-specific clinical content designed to streamline documentation, standardize workflows, and support efficient patient care. Fully integrated with NextGen Enterprise, Practice Management, and Optical Management, the suite provides comprehensive content for both ophthalmology and optometry, with regular updates to keep practices current.

Includes specialty-specific workflows for:

- Chart summaries and encounter home pages
- Technician documentation
- Patient, family, and social history
- Eye health maintenance
- History of Present Illness (HPI) and Review of Systems (ROS)
- Comprehensive eye exams, including external, slit lamp, and posterior exams
- Disease management, assessments, and treatment plans
- Procedures and diagnostic testing
- E&M and Eye code documentation

Benefits

- Comprehensive clinical content for ophthalmology and optometry
- Integrated workflows across clinical, practice management, and optical management
- Standardized documentation to improve consistency and efficiency
- Regular content updates delivered through the NextGen Adaptive Content Engine

Our strengths, your benefits

These ophthalmic workflows are complemented by platform-level capabilities that power efficiency and growth:

- AI-assisted documentation: Generate SOAP notes in seconds and save providers up to 2.5 hours per day.
- Automated billing workflows: Improve charge capture, accelerate reimbursement, and reduce manual effort.
- Enterprise-grade interoperability: Connect disparate systems into one source of truth and context.
- Integrated patient engagement: Self-scheduling, reminders, digital intake, and multilingual outreach.
- Agentic intelligence: Proactive AI agents that manage tasks across clinical, operational, and financial workflows.
- Configurable specialty workflows: Tailor templates and protocols without sacrificing governance or upgrades.
- Cloud-based scalability: Secure, managed infrastructure that supports growth without replatforming.

Optimize every step of the care journey

NextGen Healthcare connects patient access, care delivery, and revenue management into a single, intelligent workflow that gives providers and staff the context needed to drive better outcomes.

A Closed Loop® Patient & Practice Experience

Every interaction, from access to outcomes, is connected, measurable, and optimized. Clinical, administrative, and financial workflows work together to improve patient experience and practice performance.
